

MEDIA ACCREDITATION & OPERATION GUIDELINES
Anzac Day – Thursday 25 April 2019
Sydney CBD

Please ensure ALL staff working on coverage of the Sydney CBD Anzac Day commemorations read these guidelines.

- Media accreditation applies for Dawn Service, Anzac Day March, Commemoration Service and Sunset Service.
- Accreditation applies to ALL media and Defence Force photographers for all Anzac Day events. Please complete this form and return by Tuesday 16 April 2019. No accreditation = no access, so please ensure all staff have passes.
- Positions for TV link vans and any radio outside broadcasts must be approved and positions allocated in designated areas in advance - you cannot just turn up with vehicles – spaces are limited and security screening is required. Please call the contact below to discuss TV link vehicle access. Approved vehicles will need to provide rego & driver name/licence a week in advance. Passes provided for approved TV link vehicles MUST be displayed on dashboard at all times. No approved vehicle pass = no access. Vehicles outside designated areas will be moved.
- SECURITY SCREENING: Dawn Service accredited media must meet at corner of Martin Place & Pitt St (northern end) at 3:30am sharp for security screening. You must have your media pass with you.
- Dawn Service Media Areas: Due to the growing size of the Dawn Service, only a limited number of photo positions are available next to the Cenotaph. TV, print reporter, online video reporter and radio reporter media area is on the southern side of the Cenotaph, looking at the Cenotaph.
- Dawn Service live vision will be made available to all networks via the Seven Network – please contact Seven Network News Desk in Sydney (02) 8777 7777 with any queries.
- Dawn Service: Map of Dawn Service will be available for reproduction and online use. Run order, program and participants will also be available
- March: Media will NOT be permitted in the ABC TV broadcast area during the March (Elizabeth St, between Martin Place and Park St).
- March: Interviews with participants during the March can be conducted ONLY on Elizabeth St south of Park St.
- March: Interviews available with seated elderly veterans and Legacy Widows located on the corner of Elizabeth St and St James Rd. As this is in the broadcast area, access is only available via St James Rd.
- March: ABC TV March vision will be made available to all TV networks via DVOC.
- March: Map of March route and where participating units are marshalling prior to March, will be available for reproduction and online use.
- For information about road closures and current traffic conditions go to www.livetraffic.com, or download a real-time traffic app from the App Store or Google Play.
- For timetables, maps and trip planning visit transportnsw.info or download a real-time transport app,
