

ANZAC DAY

SCHOOLS' AWARDS 2017

What will your students learn about the traditions of Anzac Day?

How will your school commemorate
Anzac Day 2017?

CLOSING DATE:
Friday 26 May

Australian Government
Department of Veterans' Affairs

What are the Anzac Day Schools' Awards?

The Anzac Day Schools' Awards are designed to encourage schools to commemorate Anzac Day and engage in learning about Australia's wartime history.

Awards are presented to National and State Winners, State Runners Up and Special Category Winners.

For more details, contact the Commemorations Officer in your state or territory by phoning 133 254, emailing education@dva.gov.au or visiting www.anzacportal.dva.gov.au

Special Categories

- Best Anzac Centenary Learning
- Brigadier Bill Rolfe AO
- Best Veteran and Community Involvement
- Best Local History Research
- Best Innovative Activity
- Best Commemorative Artwork
- Best Use of Technology

Some ideas for your entry

- 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Beersheba, Palestine
- 75th Anniversary of the attacks on Sydney Harbour by Japanese midget submarines
- 45th Anniversary of Australian combat forces departing Vietnam