

Philip CHIN (Taxation)

Date/Place of Birth:	27 May 1983, Sydney NSW
Occupation:	Risk and Quality Manager
Particulars of Service:	Australian Army Reserve, Royal Australian Army Pay Corps, current Serving Member enlisted 2007. Postings: Army Financial Services Unit, Army Compliance and Assurance Agency, HQ 8 th Brigade
Campaign Medals, Decorations and Awards	Australian Defence Medal.
RSL Service:	RSL member since 2013. Held the position of Honorary Treasurer of the Taxation sub-Branch for 4 years.
Business Skills:	Currently a manager at the Australian Trade Commission (Austrade) responsible for the risk management of the export market development grants program. Previously an assistant director at the ATO managing 4 compliance teams.
Director/Management Training:	Completed various leadership, governance and management courses at university and as a part of the CPA program.
Professional Qualifications and Affiliations:	Member of the Certified Practising Accountants Australia (CPA) Master of Risk Management (Business Operations) Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting and Finance)
Current and Previous Board Appointments:
General Information:	My skills and experience will support the change required by State Branch to remain relevant to the public and Defence Force members, and modernise governance practices to give confidence in how State Branch operates. My experience in risk management will allow the organisation to balance controls with the need to get things done.
Nominated by:	Taxation