

Proxies for RSL NSW Annual State Congress and Annual General Meeting 2023

sub-Branch Delegates who cannot attend the Annual State Congress and Annual General Meeting, either in person or virtually (online) held at NEX, Newcastle on 22 to 24 October 2023, may appoint the Chair, a Director or their sub-Branch District Council Delegate as a proxy to vote on their behalf in accordance with clause 15.52 and Appendix C of the RSL NSW Constitution.

Members are reminded that the definition of “District Council Delegate” is the representative elected or appointed by each sub-Branch to represent the sub-Branch on the District Council. District Council Delegates must be Service Members attached to the nominating sub-Branch.

To appoint your proxy, please download the proxy form found on the Congress page of Members’ Suite on the RSL NSW website.

Proxy forms must be submitted in writing by email or post to the Returning Officer and must be received by 5pm on 17 October 2023, being five business days before the Annual General Meeting. Email is the preferred method for the form to be received at ANZAC House. If sending by post, please ensure you allow time for the form to reach ANZAC House on time.

ATT: Returning Officer

Email: support@rslnsw.org.au

Post: RSL NSW - ANZAC House
Suite 11.02, Level 11, 175 Pitt Street
